

Anne G. Peach - Story

Anne is a leader both clinically and administratively. Her educational and professional backgrounds in health care have provided her with a strong foundation. She is energetic and caring. She uses all of her skills in her service to the sick and poor as a volunteer with The Order of Malta. Internationally, Anne has volunteered as a nurse in Lourdes, France for the past 15 years. Domestically, she is a volunteer for Give Kids the World where she welcomes the "Make-A-Wish Foundation" children at the airport. She also works as a volunteer at the Village caring for the families. Anne's favorite saying is by Winston Churchill: "We make a living by what we get. We make a life by what we give." This quote says it all about Anne, a warm, giving, talented nurse!
